Re: United States v. Ryan (McCorrison), 12 Cr. 384

Dear Judge Nathan:

I am defense counsel for Mark McCorrison in the above-reference prosecution and write to request a short extension of time to file motions, which were due yesterday, September 26, 2012. Given unexpected issues that arose this week, including problems receiving paperwork from my client who lives out of state, I was unable to submit motions and supporting materials yesterday. I therefore respectfully request that this Court allow motions on behalf of Mr. McCorrison to be submitted on or before this Friday, September 28, 2012. I have tried to confer with the assistant United States Attorney about this request but have not yet heard back from him.

Respectfully,

Megan W. Benett

No further extensions will be granted.
